

Pagsusuri sa Ilang Salik sa Pagtutuos ng Saguting Kriminal

Lorenzo U. Padilla

46 ATENEO L.J. 497 (2001)

SUBJECT(S): CRIMINAL LAW, REVISED PENAL CODE

KEYWORD(S): FELONY, CRIMINAL LIABILITY, IMPOSSIBLE CRIMES

The Article, entirely written in Filipino, is the first of its kind ever published in the Ateneo Law Journal. It discusses the basic principles and concepts of Book I of the Revised Penal Code entirely in the vernacular. The novelty of the project brings Criminal Law and law in general closer (or more distant) to those which they serve.

The Author explains the definition of a felony, the manner of incurring criminal liability, the stages of a felony, impossible crimes, and persons liable for a crime. This Article serves merely as an introduction to exploring another facet of bringing the law closer to the people.
