

A Case Without Parallel and Precedent

Justice Claudio Teehankee, Sr.

31 ATENEO L.J. 11 (1987)

SUBJECT(S): ATENEO LAW JOURNAL 35TH ANNIVERSARY

KEYWORD(S): RULE OF LAW, DEMOCRACY, INDEPENDENT JUDICIARY, AQUINO ASSASSINATION

This Keynote Address was delivered by Chief Justice Claudio Teehankee at the Ateneo Law Journal's 35th Anniversary Celebration and Induction Ceremonies on 20 September 1986.

The Speech discusses the ravaging effects of the Marcos dictatorship on the independence of the judiciary and the erosion of the Rule of Law. The Author discusses the farce that was the Aquino-Galman murder cases under the former regime and the current Court's efforts to reverse it. Having shaken off the yoke of martial law, it is necessary to focus on restoring the public's trust and confidence in the courts and to re-consecrate the supremacy of the Rule of Law. Law journals play a significant role in this endeavor "by helping to instill in every citizen ... the strongest possible thirst for right and justice."
